

Pain Killers

Are addictive, right?

Something that takes the pain away even though you know what ails you is still there. The relief you get allows you to refocus on what really matters in your life. It is easy to understand why people get addicted.

CoSource is your office relocation/renovation pain killer. We come with the same warning label. We diligently attack the nerve endings that are causing you the most pain. Through our comprehensive discovery process we develop a detailed plan to address all of the aspects of your real estate construction and move project. We will take the numerous tasks off your plate and relieve the stress that this added load inflicts.

We can:

- ✓ Develop or validate your overall project budget
- ✓ Review your schedule, identify critical path issues, set up an attack plan
- ✓ Evaluate prospective buildings
- ✓ Manage the logistics of obtaining your other vendors by developing and managing the RFP process, compiling data and scheduling interviews
- ✓ Manage furniture acquisition, construction and technology integration
- ✓ Manage the entire move process

Do you think you are too far into the process to engage help?

You might be surprised how you can offload parts of the process to ease your pain.

Have you:

- ? Engaged a moving company, we can manage that for you
- ? Compiled your From/To data sheet
- ? Developed your Move Task List
- ? Developed and implemented a Clean-up Campaign
- ? Assigned someone to work with various departments to make sure they are on track
- ? Had concerns about the schedule and would like an experienced eye to gut check it
- ? Identified a leader to manage the physical move for you

Pain Killers

We can help you with any or all of these pain makers.

We are addictive too, only in a good way.
