

A PENNY FOR OUR THOUGHTS

“A Project is like love; it has clear intentions at the beginning, but it can get complicated”.

“Agile project management focuses on selecting the right project team members and molding them into a productive and cohesive unit.”

“Planning is critical to project management, the way not having a fear of heights is critical to being a pilot. Having a plan on how to get thing done is the foundation to delivering any project well.”

“Project management can be defined as a way of developing structure in a complex process, where the independent variable of times, cost, resources and human behavior come together.”

“Quality work is most appreciated when it is done when no one is looking.”

“The success of a project is greatly dependent on frequent visualization of the desired outcome.”

“Strategy provides a light at the end of the tunnel, operations keep the lights on, and project management is the engine that moves the train forward.”

“Being a Project Manager is like being an artist, you have the different colored process streams combining into a work of art.”

“Anyone can point out a problem....A leader is willing to do something about it. CoSource solve problems!”

“It has been said that communication is the life blood of every organization, but nowhere is this truer than in project management.”

“Good leaders create a vision, articulate the vision, and passionately own the vision, and relentless drive it to completion.”

“The conventional definition of management is getting work done through people, but real management is developing people through work.”

“If, on your team, everyone’s input is not encouraged, valued, and welcome, why call it a team?”
